Additional Information

Try and squeeze in a trip to the medieval town of Cognac, home of the world famous brandy. Even if your children are too young to tolerate a tour around the distillery, head for the lovely riverside Parc François 1 with it's beautiful lawns, streams and bridges with paddling pool, bouncy castles and nature walks.

The Marais Poitevin is the jewel in Deux-Sèvres crown with its marshes, channels and waterways winding gently through a luxuriant landscape of trees and shrubs.
